ORDER OF THE ARROW

Information For Candidates (Spring Ordeal)

Congratulations on your election to the Order of the Arrow. Coming to your ordeal will be a great experience for you. You may have heard many things about the Ordeal, but it is really a ceremony - not a camp as you are used to having. The Ordeal is a time for you to make some commitments and decisions that will make you ready to become a member of the Order of the Arrow. Plan to leave all the usual things that occupy your mind and time at home.

Plan to arrive at Camp Three Falls for the Ordeal on Friday night between 6:00-8:00p.m. You will be finished on Saturday around 8:00p.m., so please plan to be picked-up no later than 8:45p.m. Also, eat dinner before arriving, there will be no meals served on Friday night.

You will need to bring the following items with you:

- BSA Medical form (parts A and B)
- Sleeping bag, sleeping pad, and ground cloth
- Pocketknife
- Canteen or water bottle
- Old work clothes & gloves that you do not mind getting dirty
- Full class 'A' uniform
- Poncho
- Warm jacket
- Hat
- Personal hygiene article and required medications

You will not need a tent, food, or cooking gear. Also, do NOT bring any electronic gadgets, i.e., walkie-talkies, radios, Walkmans, iPods, electronic games, cellphones, etc.

At your ordeal, you will be organized in a patrol-sized group of candidates with an experienced arrowmen as your guide. We call him an Elangomat - it means friend. Your ordeal will begin Friday evening when you attend a campfire that will remind you of some of the commitments that you need to think about.

Again, don't worry about your ordeal. There is nothing to be afraid of, in spite of what others may have said. It will be one of the great experiences in your scouting life - one that you will remember for a long time.
